The mission of a Camp Counsellor is to assist in achieving the goals of camp and ensuring the success of camp. These include: providing a safe environment for our children, making camp fun for everyone including you, assist in teaching the Greek Orthodox way of life, assist in Greek cultural, sports, arts and craft, and other activities. This role does not end when summer camp ends, but continues on through other outside camp experiences with the campers. - To love the kids and help them to see themselves as God sees them.
- To help in planning, organizing and executing activities.
- To be fully prepared and on time for activities.
- To communicate with the directors if there are any problems or questions.

- Counsellors will not become romantically involved with any of the campers.
- Counsellors will not engage in sexual activity at camp.
- Counsellors will not smoke cigarettes (or related) on the camp property.
